A wonderful blend of historic charm and modern design, these two beautiful separate homes provide a unique package for buyers or investors seeking multi-generational living, income potential, or co-ownership.

The front home includes a welcoming open front porch; spacious living room with large window, crown moulding, and hardwood floor; formal dining room with window to the backyard; and large eat-in kitchen with double sink, tile backsplash, and adjoining mudroom with additional storage space and walkout to backyard. The second floor features three large and bright bedrooms with hardwood flooring; a flexible additional room with window which can be used as a walk-in closet or den; hallway linen closet; and 4-piece family bathroom. Lower level with good ceiling height, an additional 4-piece bath, laundry and oodles of storage space.

The laneway house, just completed in 2026 and not yet lived in, is a masterful example of impeccable design, function, and contemporary features.
