The school's Catholic spirit is very evident in the daily classroom prayers, reflections, Bible readings, and prayers for specific and general intentions. At frequent school masses and paraliturgies we celebrate our traditional Catholic feasts. Prayerful assemblies are held on such days as Thanksgiving Day, Remembrance Day, and Canada Day. Throughout the Lenten season many children attend the daily masses at the church. The children welcome the priests' visits to their classrooms throughout the year. All these foster a Catholic environment and remind us of our Catholic heritage.
