Each community has its own flavour and character and are home to friendly and closely-tied residents. The Slocan Valley is comprised of three municipalities in the north: New Denver, Silverton and the Village of Slocan, and roughly 18 other unincorporated communities in Area H of the Regional District of Central Kootenay (RDCK). In the south end of the Valley, communities like Crescent Valley, Slocan Park and Winlaw offer a variety of services for locals and visitors.

New Denver

New Denver has a varied history. From the boom of mining town days, it became an internment centre for Japanese during the Second World War and is now enjoying a renewed interest from people seeking to find a quiet lifestyle away from urban centres. Situated on Slocan Lake, known for its warm water temperatures, it is surrounded by spectacular mountains and parks: Valhalla Provincial Park, Kokanee Glacier Provincial Park and further west, Goat Range Provincial Park. There is no shortage of things to do and see. Nine-hole golf courses in the area, soccer pitches, skating arenas and first-class mountain bike trails round out the rural lifestyle.
